

Times When You Need Renters Insurance

Renters insurance provides financial cushioning against damage caused to the belongings of a tenant in case of an unforeseen situation. Here are some situations when you may need it.

Theft: It pays replacement or market value of stolen items, depending upon the coverage option opted by you.

Fire: Renters insurance pays for the damage caused to your belongings in case of fire.

Injured Guest: If a guest is injured on the premises of your property, renters insurance pays for medical & liability costs.

Natural Disaster: Any damage caused to your belongings is covered under renters insurance depending upon your coverage option.

Alternate Living: In case your home is damaged & you have to stay at a hotel, renters insurance covers the living cost up to a pre-set value.
